

As it was with you 40 years ago, their Coalition partners hold our personnel in the highest esteem. And like Vietnam, we are grateful that our unique approaches, built on your experiences to conducting tasking, have ensured that all of our squadron personnel have returned safely back to Australia.

So, thank you, the members of RAAF Transport Flight Vietnam and 35 Squadron for being exactly who you were.

We, the Air Force of today, will always remember and honour you.
