

Any of you old and bold want to comment? It was a short distance

Still acquiring material for the new book. If you have anything to add please send to me asap.

Hope you can make it to the Viet Vets Museum at Phillip Island next weekend for the unveiling of the Caribou, A4-231.

Stay Well

Don

Subject: Myths or Not

Made with Paper / fiftythree.com

Hi Don,

Julie and I visited the Vietnam Vets Museum at Phillip Island last week, most impressive, pity their isn't a little more on the RAAF though.

I have recounted to a number of people over the years that you guys were such good pilots you were able to land and turn onto our parking strip as per my diagram whereas the Americans (not as well trained of course) were not able to do this. I know this was not a regular occurrence but is my 79 year old brain dreaming? Not the dreaming...that is regular!

Hope the trip is still a revelation....Jim